

Our Mission:

1. To offer support for those living with and beyond cancer, including their family members and their friends.
2. To announce lectures and events pertaining to ALL types of cancer.
3. To offer a website for the purpose of reaching those affected by cancer who are seeking organized information.

What We Can Do For You:

1. Refer you to local resources.
2. Connect you to services, service providers, and support in the area.
3. Suggest links that will provide you with cancer information and resources.

If you have or have had cancer, or are the friend or relative of a cancer patient, we hope to assist you. If you find this website useful, Please refer us to other interested parties.
